

SIoux CITY POLICE PROMOTIONS INCLUDE ISPA LEADERSHIP

Submitted by Sioux City Chief Rex Mueller

The Sioux City Police Department is proud to announce the promotion of Officer Zach Lewis to the rank of Sergeant. Zach is a 14-year veteran of law enforcement. His past assignments with the SCPD include work as a patrol officer, field training officer, property crimes detective, arson investigator, school resource officer, and DARE instructor. Zach also serves the department as a member of the Crisis Negotiations Team and Critical Incident Stress Management Team. Officer Lewis is a precision driving instructor, and a pilot for the department's UAV Drone Unit. He represented his fellow officers as a Sioux City Police Officer's Association past president, a past president for the Iowa State Police Association board of directors, and past president of the Rabiner Treatment Center board of directors. He has a bachelor's degree in Criminology/Sociology, and a master's degree in In Organizational Psychology. Sergeant Lewis will be assigned as a supervisor in the uniformed services division.

The Sioux City Police Department is proud to announce the promotion of Sergeant Judy Kellen to the rank of Lieutenant. Judy is a 24-year veteran of the department. Her past assignments with the SCPD include work as a patrol officer, field training officer, property crimes detective, and crimes against property detective. As a sergeant, Judy worked as a patrol supervisor, street level drug unit supervisor, training coordinator and bike patrol unit member. She has represented her fellow officers serving as Conference Chair for March 2020

Iowa Association of Women Police, as well as, serving as a board member for the Iowa State Police Association. She has a bachelor's degree in health, education and psychology, and a master's degree in Leadership. Lieutenant Kellen will be assigned as the afternoon watch commander for the uniform services division.